

Pent-à-vent

Thursday, May 21 – 4:00 pm

Location TBA

Kelly Roudabush, classical flute

Sung Lee, classical oboe

Thomas Carroll, classical clarinet

Erin Yoder, natural horn

Kelsey Schilling, classical bassoon

Quintet in B-flat major, op. 56, no.1.....Franz Danzi (1763-1826)

Quintet no. 2 in E-flat major.....Francois Gebauer (1773-1844)

Quintet in g minor, op. 56, no.2.....Franz Danzi

Pent-à-vent is an ensemble of historical wind players in the Early Music Institute and in the Jacobs School of Music of Indiana University. Brought together by a love of the classical wind repertoire and performing on historical instruments, Pent-à-vent seeks to rediscover the sound world of the composers who first wrote for this unique combination of instruments. The instruments the musicians play are all copies of German instruments from around 1800.